Mr. J. D. Pennington and wife and Mr.
Chas. E. Wilcox passed through the city Tuesday enroute to their home in McKinney, Texas. Mr. Pennington was a former citizen of this county, and has been here for several weeks visiting his old home. When he leaves he will be well pleased with Texas and likes to live there, but his wife says there is no place like Kentucky.

The Original Kickapoo Indian Medicine Company, will locate at Fisher's Hall, March 5th, and will give free exhibitions every night to ladies and gentlemen, no children admitted, except to Saturday matinees. Extra attractions, Saturday night, when the admission is only 10 cents.
Doors open at 8 o'clock. No one admitted after 8 o'clock. Genuine Indian Medicines for sale. Every thing fresh. The Company remains until further notice.

Farmers, you should use the News' free columns more than you do. It will assist you more than you can imagine if you will only try it. If you have a horse to sell or anything else in the way of stock or farm products, why not send a postal to that effect and let the News do the selling for you. Instead of you getting no return here and looking two or three days of valuable time for a buyer. The News is willing and anxious to serve you in this capacity. This Company believes in home utilization of its gas, and that is what more of the companies ought to be at.

Mr. J. D. Pennington, who was sentenced to penitentiary for life, through his attorney, moved the court to have him tried for larceny, which was done, and the jury returned a verdict that the defendant (Gill) was a lunatic. The court suspended the judgment to the penitentiary and G. W. sent to the asylum. If he should become sane, he will be brought back here and then arraigned for the pen.

The Rock Gas Co., continues to push its work in the field at Long Branch by its capital and persevering engineer, Clarence L. Parsons. They are pumping three of their wells steadily all the time, two twain to a well. They each stand seven hours at a watch. Messrs. Andy Bickelstaf and Geo. Beaman are at Mc-Gehee No. 1. A. Dittie, Jr., and Jimmie Bickelstaf at Bickelstaf No. 1. John Sal-ivan and J. T. Dittie at Shackelford No. 1.

At a mass meeting of the citizens of Meadow Creek at the corner house on Wednesday night, Feb. 26th to discuss the natural resources of the county, and to devise some means by which they could be made available to the people, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee: J. F. Woolfolk, O. C. Richardson W. H. Richardson, A. M. Robinson, Dr. H.
K. Pusey and Dr. W. C. Pusey. The Commercial Club of Louisville. This committee will report its actions next Monday night, when other important steps will be taken and then they may expect to see Meade county to the front.

Mr. Ned Reed, of Owensboro, Ohio, and Miss Julia E. Dittie, daughter of Mr. J. K.

a few days in the city last week.

The high water has caused Mr. J. S.
Moreman to shut down his mill.

Mr. Sam Fowler has been a victim to the fashionable disease, Grippe.

Dr. J. M. Hardin's family has been suffering very much from the Grippe.

County court Monday. The bills of interest, beyond a few cash cases.

The administrator's sale of Wm. Dittie, deceased, will take place March 13, 1890.

Judge Woolfolk announces himself as a candidate for the Constitutional Convention.

Mr. Sanford Malla will please accept thanks through this column for court items.

Miss Ida Mayfield has returned to Long Branch and taken up a subscription in this city.

tiary for life for the killing of Mrs. Minerva Jones.

Mrs. J. D. Babbage and children, Cleo-peter, have been spending a few days at her old home.

G. L. Nease and wife, of Louisville, St. Louis and Texas railroad, judgment for plaintiff $3,000.

Capt. Joe Phillips and wife, of Memphis, arrived here last Sunday to attend the Reed Dittie funeral.

Mr. Melvin L. Gabbert, Rockport, Ind., has been visiting his cousin, Mrs. George Dowden, for a few weeks.

Judge Law, Frankfort, candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, spoke at the court-house Sunday.

The cold snap will no doubt have a disastrous effect on the early fruit and all that is very forward.

Miss Nellie Lewis was down home Saturday and Sunday, but her school at Louisville, to see her mother.

Mr. Geo. H. Reiman and wife returned home from Louisville Friday night from a protracted visit to relatives.

suffered in getting out to Miss Dittie's wedding Tuesday on account of the high water.

Miss Addie Dittie leaves with the bridal party Wednesday to spend the rest of the winter with her sister, Mrs. D. W. Fairleigh in Louisville.

The Rock Ice Co. had to disconnect some of its tanks from the line and let the ice out to keep them from floating off during the high water.

Messrs. Doyle, Harvey and A. J. Porter, the secretary of the Meade County Central Club Co., were down last week looking after the interests of the Company.

Glad to report that Mr. Emmett Coleman and Mr. Jim Bland, who have been very ill, are thought to be very much better and their recovery is no longer doubted.

The high water has run out several factories on the river front. The water is up in the street some distance and all travel up to the bottom is cut off and the people go out over the hill.

The water has shut off the travel from the upper bottom. Suppose the depot were on Spaulding Dittie's farm, how would people get to it? The station is at the proper place for Brandenburg.

John L. Malla has left the river and is at home for the present, waiting up for something else. He says he wants a dry land occupation. He has good reasons for and can see where it is right.

W. H. Wilcox passed through the city Tuesday enroute to their home in McKinney, Texas. Mr. Pennington was a for-
here for several weeks visiting his old home. When he leaves he will be well

IT IS NO DISGRACE

To be poor, but, as "Jones" says, it's mighty inconvenient!
"Jones" comes pretty near the truth. We have in some extent robbed "poverty of its sting," by selling the best of Clothing in the city at such remarkably low prices that the poor man can dress as well as the rich man. For the past few weeks we have been doing business for the accommodation of the public. We adopted this plan in order to push our Winter Stock of Suits and Overcoats. We have made a high hole in our stock, and while we have made no money, thank the people for their liberal patronage. The time is drawing near, however, when we must bring forward our new Spring Stock, which we have been manufacturing for some time. Before we do that, the remainder of our superb Suits and Overcoats go at the same cut-rate prices. Now is the time to buy a Suit or Overcoat for next winter.

SULZER'S

"Old Reliable" Clothiers

S. E. COR. THIRD AND MARKET STS., LOUISVILLE, KY.

Ditto, were married Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, at her home, one and one-half miles south Brandenburg, by Rev. J. B.
Tinkler. Mr. Addie G. Dittie and Mr. Harry Holton, Columbus, Ohio, were the attendants. Visitors from a distance, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Reed, Hesse, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Reed, Centerville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phillips, Memphis, Tenn.; Mr. Hugh Phillips and daughter, Miss Minnie, Lebanon, Ky., Mr. J. D. Babbage, Cloverport; Mr. F.
Dittie, Sr., Louisville, Miss. English, Stephensport. Mr. Reed can flatter himself on his success in capturing one of the most beautiful and accomplished Miss Grass daughters.

Mr. Beeler, traveling salesman for Johnson & Co., of Louisville, was in town last week.

Miss Eva Leman, who has been teaching for the last five months near Irvington, has returned home.

Mr. Wilson, our late teacher, has returned to his home near Burns. Much to the regret of his many friends.

Miss Virginia B. Paul's school at Hittell closed last week, and she has returned home to the delight of her many friends.

Miss Emma Hodges will return to her home in Louisville in a few days. Come again, Miss Emma. We are always glad to see you.

We understand Miss Lena Drury has charge of the spring school and will commence in a short time. Success to you, Miss Lena.

Miss Cora Hardy of Irvington, and Miss Nannie Bond, of Garfield, spent Saturday and Sunday the guests of Mr.
Sam McCor.

Mr. Holt, of near Irvington, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Susan Tucker, for the past two weeks, has returned to her home.

Mr. Davenport, pastor of the M. E. church at this place, failed to fill his appointment last Saturday and Sunday on account of sickness.

Our friend Will E. Pool, in the interest of M. Robinson, Louisville, spent a few days in town last week, and his visits always are most welcome.

Mr. John Musselman has moved his family near to Sinking creek hill soon to be convenient to attend the water tank on the L. & W. railroad, which he has chartered.

Buffalo Bill had an interesting experience at Brandenburg. As he was about to leave that city he was accompanied by an escort of the Spanish government, who asked him if he would accept of the Acclamation. "Not by a long sight," said Go. Colby. "I am already duke of Caldwell." The escort bowed respectfully and disappeared.

Mr. Runkin was once asked if it would go well for the Welsh language to be out and be replaced by the English.
"God forbid!" he replied. "The Welsh language is the language of music. These no genius about the English language.
The Scotch have got all the poetry, and the Irish all the wit; and how we got Shakespeare I do not know."

Hawarden, Mr. Gladstone's country seat, was invaded one day recently by a little olive colored man, making many gestures and talking a strange jargon.
The servants arrested him as a maniac and possible assassin. Mr. Gladstone was summoned to see the wretch, who turned out to be a Greek peasant, speaking no English, who had come all the way from Athens to congratulate the British statesman on knowing Homer's "Iliad" by heart.

DOINGS OF ROYALTY.

Ex-Queen Natalie has ordered $100,000 worth of furniture from Russia for her new home in Belgium.

The Prince of Naples, although not yet 31 years of age, has been appointed by the royal father to a senatorship of Italy.

The case has been postponed annual performance of 8,000 rubles (about $1,000) upon Anton Rubinstein, and the eminent pianist has a standing offer of $5,500 a year performance for twenty-five piano performances in America.

The misanthrop of Turkey has decided to pull out uniforms on his troops, and is now inspecting different styles of military dress. It is settled that in summer the uniform shall be white, like that of the Russian army.

The papers of the late Empress Augusta have been taken in charge by an officer of the German government and sealed up. They include diaries and journals which were intended for publication after her death, and which, it is believed, would have made a sensation among the royalties.

An inventory of the wardrobe of Queen Elizabeth, made in the year 1900, recently published, shows that the queen then had 70 robes, 150 articles, 600 gowns, 180 "forecasts," 120 "ettresses," 70 80 cloaks, 80 veils, 80 doublets and 18 lap mantles. The "worn" appear all to have been of the rich materials.
